Company Overview

Suzhou Hexagon Communication Technologies Co., Ltd. was founded in the booming economy development zone of Kunshan. It is located in the industrial center of East China with Shanghai in the east, with Suzhou and Wuxi in the west, enjoying the strategic location and convenient traffic. Hexagon was established in Feb. 2012 as a specialist in R&D, production, sales and marketing, and service of passive RF and Microwave components. We are all about giving our customers professional products and superior service.

Hexagon manufactures a full line of coaxial filters, duplexers, multiple band combiners, point of interface (POIs), and waveguide filters, OMT Kits, waveguide combiners etc. for mobile communications and microwave communications etc. These designs cover the frequency range from 300 MHz to 110 GHz. Our products are mainly featured with low PIM and completely customisable design against the customers' parameters. Hexagon's markets are primarily Europe, America, Middle East, Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan, and Southeast Asia.

As Hexagon's founding, a powerful support for our steady development is relying on the professional R&D team, continuous flow manufacturing techniques, efficient and intelligent quality management system, and up-to-date plant management idea. Now there are almost a hundred employees in our factory including more than 20% senior industrial engineers. Also we own in-house dozens of CNC machines and auto-testing equipment. In order to meet the requirements for PIM, Hexagon takes every step of development and production very seriously. We have stringent requirements on design and must leave proper margin to ensure the product performance. No matter prototypes but also mass production, all the products must be passed the strict performance test before delivery. This is our promise to you and this is Hexagon.
