Company Overview

Thinxtra Pty Ltd, trading as Thinxtra, is an IoT carrier deploying an LPWA throughout Australia exclusively utilising Sigfox UNB network technology. The company, backed by NSX-listed Rakon Limited, intends on deploying services throughout Australia, New Zealand, and Hong Kong.

Thinxtra is empowering the Internet of Things in Asia Pacific by deploying the world-leading Sigfox LPWA network as well as building a full eco-system of IoT solutions and services to enable the non-connected to connect, to increase productivity, accelerate decision making, improve quality of service and quality of life, and find more economical solutions to common problems.

Thinxtra's Sigfox network currently covers 71% of the population in Australia and 89% of the population in New Zealand and will start deployment in Hong Kong by June 2017. It will cover 95% of the population of those countries by the end of 2017.
